Boffin says NO third wave thanks to UK vaccine triumph PEAK HOPE: Professor Thomas hailed vaccine

BRITAIN will NOT face a third wave of coronavirus fatalities in the autumn thanks to the success of the vaccination programme, an expert has said.

Philip Thomas, professor of risk management at Bristol University, said that the UK is "beating the pandemic", after the number of Brits who received their second dose of the jab passed legal coronavirus restrictions will end.

The Scientific Advisory Group for Emergencies (Sage) claimed that a full unlocking could prompt a large wave of infection in the autumn, with new variants potentially thwarting the success of the vaccination programme.

Overdone

But Professor Thomas said that the "negativity" of some experts was "overdone", and there was "little evidence" to back the claim that the easing of lockdown would see a surge in deaths. He said: "It is my view that if there is indeed an increase in infections over the coming months, it will have little significant impact and the death toll will remain extremely low. That is because of the huge success of the vaccine programme, which will mean that by June, the overwhelming majority of the population is protected."

He added: "My prediction is that, although the total number of active infections in England could reach a peak of 160,000 in the early autumn of this year, this rise will not lead to a spike in deaths or hospitalisations.
"That is because, thanks to the vaccines, the link between COVID infections and fetalition.

That is because, thanks to the vaccines, the link between COVID infections and fatalities has been broken." Professor Thomas also claimed that even when the peak of the third wave is reached the death toll will reached, the death toll will remain less than 20 per day. Meanwhile, public health experts are continuing to monitor the real-world impact of the vaccination programme as restrictions are eased. It is hoped this could give an indication of just how effective vaccines are at curbing the virus's transmission as well as stopping serious illness.

But scientists have raised concern over the spread of new variants, which they fear could render vaccines less effective.

ERIAL killer Aileen Wuornos was sexually abused and thrown out of her home as a teenager.

She made a living as a sex worker on Florida's highways and in 1989 she killed a man who had picked her up.

Though her sanity was questioned at the time, Wuornos was executed by lethal injection in 2002.

In addition to documentaries, books and an opera, her story was depicted in the 2003 hit movie Monster starring Charlize Theron in the lead.

The actress, often known for a glamorous screen persona, underwent a major physical and emotional transformation to portray evil Wuornos.

In a performance that was gruelling to watch and hailed as a cinematic milestone, Charlize won an Oscar for Best Actress.

Wuornos's life continues to hold a fascination for the creative industry, with actress Lily Rabe also portraying her in the 2015 season of hit series American Horror Story.

Aileen was arrested at the Last Resort biker bar in Port Orange, Florida, while police tracked down Moore in Pennsylvania.

To avoid prosecution, Moore made a deal, and in January 1991, she elicited a telephone confession from Aileen, who took full and sole responsibility for the murders

I RECENTLY moved to a new house and my neighbour, a tasty divorcee in her late 30s, soon introduced herself.

She invited me to a quiz night at the local booze and said she was meeting up with two mates.

I thought I'd have a good chance of pulling her, so I said yes.

When I got there, her mates were already at the bar getting stuck into some cocktails.

They were also late 30s, blonde and sexy.

It soon became clear that they were not the slightest bit interested in the quiz – they wanted me. I invited them back to

I shagged all three before they got down to some lesbo fun.

It was great to watch them sucking each other's tits and clits.

To finish, my neighbour stuck a dildo up my arse while I took one of her mates from behind as she licked her pal out.

We don't go to the quiz nights now, they just come to my place and we f**k.

I'm so glad I moved and several of my mates are now looking for houses round here.

I HAVE always thought of myself as straight but recently ľve been lusting been lusting after some lady-loving.

I keep noticing beautiful women in the street and fantasising about kissing their soft lips.

And of caressing their boobies. I'm mesmerised by a big pair!

I'm watching a lot of lesbian porn these days and curvy brunettes with peachy bums who look a bit filthy, maybe with tattoos, do it for me.

Steamy

I have a boyfriend and I told him about my naughty thoughts. He's suggested a threesome so he gets to see me get it on with a girl.

That would be super hot. I'm considering looking for a girl to invite into the bedroom on dating apps.

And I've just got a new hot tub in the garden. I'd love for the three of us to get steamy in there!

I get so excited thinking about it, like it's going to be a bit like a porn film!

GARETH Southgate fears his England squad will be ripped to shreds if "Big Six" players are banned from the Euros.

And Scotland boss Steve Clarke will lose several key stars too.

UEFA are fuming at proposals for the European Super League and are talking about taking the nuclear options and banning players from the Europe the Euros.

That would mean anyone from Liverpool, Manchester United, City, Chelsea, Tottenham and Arsenal would not be allowed to play for their

The players are up in arms about it — and England manager Southgate has asked the FA to find out if he's going to lose players.

European Super League and all options are on the table.

So how would the England and Scotland teams look if Big Six players aren't allowed to play.

ENGLAND

There's no change in goal where Nick Pope at Burnley and Everton's Jordan Pickford are not affected.

Jordan Pickiord are not affected.
But in defence, we can quickly see a massive shake-up.
Southgate would lose his entire first-choice backline.
There would be no Harry Maguire and no John Stones in the middle.
Kyle Walker, Luke Shaw, Kieran
Tripnier, Trent Alexander, Arnold Trippier, Trent Alexander-Arnold and Ben Chilwell would also be off limits. So who would be left in front of Pope or Pickford?

Wolves' Conor Coady and Michael Keane of Everton look a likely pair in the middle with Aston Villa's Tyrone Mings in the mix.
At full-back there could be a callup for young Brighton star Tariq Lamptey and Matt Targett from Aston Villa could get a look-in.
But there's not a lot of strength in depth at full-back compared to now. Moving up the pitch, there is a big hole where Liverpool's Jordan Pickford should be. Young ace Phil Foden is out because he plays for Man City.
Mason Mount and Eric Dier are also off limits for Southgate.
So Southgate would surely turn to Leeds' Kalvin Phillips with Declan Rice of West Ham in the middle.
Out wide Jude Bellingham from Borussia Dortmund could get the call with the likes of James Ward-Prowse and James Maddison in the running too. Up front there's a real change with

Up front there's a real change with skipper Harry Kane banned along with Marcus Rashford and Raheem Sterling. That's Southgate's first-choice attack gone in a stroke.

There's plenty of talent to come in but surely not of the same standard and certainly lacking experience.

The new attack would be formed of Dominic Calvert Lewin with

The new attack would be formed of Dominic Calvert-Lewin with Danny Ings also in line for a start through the middle.

They could be supported by Aston Villa ace Jack Grealish and Jadon Sancho. Then there's Ollie Watkins and Patrick Bamford as back-up.

So it's not a bad team but there would have to be eight or nine

THAT'S ROCKING WORLD FOOTBALL

Steve Clarke wouldn't be hit as badly in terms of numbers but he'll lose arguably his three top men.
The biggest loss will be his skipper Andy Robertson who plays for Liverpool.
And he has formed a potent part-

And he has formed a potent partnership down the left with Kieran Tierney. He's likely to recover from injury in time for the Euros but could be banned as he's an Arsenal player. Scott McTominay has grown into an important man for the Tartan Army with strong performances at the back and in midfield.

He's a Manchester United player so wouldn't be allowed to play.

And Billy Gilmour of Chelsea is one of the more attacking options for Clarke who wouldn't be available this summer.

So both nations would be badly hit, along with some of their rivals.

Surely if you're a betting person

it's time to have a few quid on Germany as they will have very few players missing if a Euros ban comes

Players union Fifpro says it will do all they can to make sure their players can turn out at the Euros.

A statement said: "Players continue to be used as assets and leverage in these negotiations.

The Liverpool skipper could be banned from playing for England — along with stars from the other rebel clubs — if the proposals go ahead.

Hendo led the charity effort from the players to help the NHS when the pandemic started. And he's rallying the troops again.
